Ym mis Tachwedd bydd Jack Williams, cyn-fyfyriwr Lletygarwch ac Arlwygo yng Ngholeg Meirion-Dwyfor, yn cynrychioli Cymru yng nghystadleuaeth Gweinydd Ifanc y Byd. Yn ddiweddar enillodd y gwŷr ifanc 18 oed o Ddolgellau rownd derfynol Cymru yn Abertawe, a bydd yn teithio i Singapore i gystadlu;

"Mi wnes i fwynhau'r cwrs yn arw. Ro'n i'n edrych ymlaen i ddoed i'r coleg. Roeddwn i wir yn hoffi ochr ymarferol y cwrs; gweini cwsmeriaid ar ddydd Iau, coginio iddyn nhw ar y dydd Gwener, a gweithio tuag at arholiadau tra roeddwn i'n gwneud hyn. Roedd yn anhygoel, dwy flynedd wych."

Former Coleg Meirion-Dwyfor Hospitality and Catering student Jack Williams will represent Wales in the World Young Waiter competition in November. The 18-year-old from Dolgellau recently won the Welsh national final in Swansea, and will now travel to Singapore to compete;

"I really enjoyed the course and was excited to come to college. I really liked the practical side of the course; serving customers on a Thursday, cooking for them on the Friday, and working towards exams while I was doing this. It was amazing, a great two years."

Mae Lois Erin Jones yn astudio'r Gymraeg ym Mhrifysgol Bangor.

Dywedodd: "Roedd y coleg yn gam perffaith i mi er mwyn cwblhau fy nghwrs Lefel A. Roedd cael astudio drwy'r Gymraeg yn bwysig iawn i mi, ac mae'r Coleg yn wych am ddarparu addysg ddwyieithog. Roedd fy nhiwtoriaid bob amser ar gael os oeddwn i angen unrhyw gymorth, ac mae awyrgylch gyfeillgar iawn yn y coleg. Byddaf yn trysori fy amser yn y Coleg am byth."

Lois Erin Jones is studying Welsh at Bangor University.

She said: "College was the perfect step for me to complete my A Level. Being able to study through the medium of Welsh was very important to me, and the College is great at providing a bilingual education. My tutors were always available if I needed any help, and there is a very friendly atmosphere at the college. I will always treasure my time at the College."
